Last night the friends of Mr. Parker in the New York delegation gave it out that Mr. Green would be the permanent chair- Mississippi's twenty votes will be cast man, as they had picked him as their for Parker, choice for the place. Mr. Green attracted Governor the attention of the Parker managers by his management of the Indiana convention, and they say that they wish to show their appreciation of his worth. At the same time, they say that it would be a recognition of the fact that Parker controls the convention.

State Chairman Thomas E, Barkworth of Michigan plu himsed out of the running by his declaration that he would resign the chairmanship of the Michigan committee if Mr. Parker were nominated. This climinates a man who was thought to have a very good chance of securing the coyeted honor.

CLARK MENTIONED.

Champ Clark is still one of the most prominently mentioned for the honor. As soon as his name was proposed in connection with the place, delegations from other States took up the proposition. Yesterday Congressman W. D. Vandiver was named as the Missouri member of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

As a collieague of Mr. Clark, Mr. Vandiver immediately started to work, and says that he has secured pledges from a number of the other members of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

There are friends of Mr. Parker who say that they would like to have Mayor Collins as the presiding officer of the convention. He is now slated to make the speech nominating Mr. Olney for the presidency, and the Parker people are not denying that they would like to have the Massachussetts vote—on the second ballot if not on the first.

Mayor Rose of Milwaukee is being soon as his name was proposed in connying that they would like to have the Massachussetts vote—on the second balet if not on the first.

Mayor Rose of Milwaukee is being pushed by many Western men. He has been busy since his arrival attending to the Wall presidential boom and to every suggestion that he was to be the beneficiary of the Wall organization he has entered a vigorous denial.

Present indications are that there will be a spirited friendly contest over the permanent chairmanship. There are some who think that Congressman John Sharp Williams will earn the place before he has finished taking care of the temporary organization. Until the committee meets this afternoon, the claims of the Parker contingent seem to bear the most weight.

PHILIPPINE DELEGATES SEND A PROTEST.

The Democratic delegation from the Philippine Islands believes that for the good of the Democratic party and as a matter of justice to the people of the Philippines their voice should be heard in the councils of the party. Maryland Man Said to Be Selection of Senator Gorman for the Place.

Declare Hoosier State Is Solely for Parker on Basis of Deal-That Taggart Is to Be Chairman.

Murray Vandiver of Maryland is the man named by Senator Gorman as his selection for chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and the Senator's wishes in this particular will go far with William F. Sheehan and David B. Hill, the Parker managers.

The withdrawal of Senator Gorman was ot accomplished directly on this basis, but the final announcement of Maryland, West Virginia and the District of Columbia, as in line for Parker, is understood to wait upon this proposition.

a definite statement of the policy of the United States toward the Phillippine Islands be made at once. We condemn the procrastinaths policy of the Republican party, which is unjust and insincere, and which is largely responsible for the present ruinous condition of depression prevailing in these islands.

"We believe it to be the duty of the Government of the United States to enact such legislation as will promote the best interests of the Philippine Islands and sid in their material development; and we submit as a matter of right that these islands, with reference to affording them a free market for their products, should be placed on the same basis as Porto Rico." The anti-Parker forces used their every influence to induce Senator Gorman to become an active candidate for President. Tammany was the spokesman in the negotlations to this end. But Tammany could promise only the defeat of Parker; it could not begin to show the way to the Senator's nomination.

Victor Baughman and Arthur Pue Gorman, Jr., of the Maryland delegation, held a long conference Monday evening with Bird S. Coler, Bourke Cockran and Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall.

Bird S. Coler, Bourke Cockran and Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall. The situation was discussed at length. The situation was discussed at length. The Maryland men decided that Tammany had absolutely nothing to deliver in the way of votes—that an alliance would mean only Gorman's assistance in Tammany's local fight on Davio B. Hill.

"We cannot listen to you." Mr. Baughman declared. "If Senator Gorman announces, he willi get only his own personal strenath, Maryland, West Virginia, possibly one Southern State and Pennsylvania, To go into the field with this following is hardly commensurate with the dignity of the leader of the minority in the Senate. Gentlemen, Senator Gorman is not a candidate."

The wires were kept working between the Southern Hotel and Laurel. Md. Mr. Baughman, General Poe and A. P. Gorman, Jr., constantly were advised of the Senator's views. It is known that the action of his friends in withdrawing from further negotiations was fully approved by Senator Senator. Beator Gorman and that then, late at night, after Pennsylvania's action became known, Mr. Baughman was in conference with the Parker leaders, former Senator Edward Murphy, State Senator P. H. McCarran and David S. Sheehan. The statement is made with show of truth that the proffer of the chairmanship was made to Senator Gorman himself. However, he was not feel that his health would permit of the active management of a campaign and it was expressed as his wish that Mr. Vandiver be accorded the honor.

BELMONT HAS AMBITIONS. ity, and the re-election of the President would be the worst menace the South sissippl, and will represent the State in The only other event of interest at the caucus was the effort of De H. Chamberain of Jefferson County, an alternate, to get the delegates to absolve themselves from their instructions for Parker and BELMONT HAS AMBITIONS.

Governor James K. Vardaman was elected chairman of the delegation; John Sharp Williams, member of the Committee on Resolutions; T. C. Ketchings, Committee on Credentials; Judge W. S. Hill, Permanent Organization, Charles E. Hooker, vice president of the convention; Clarence Siviey, Committee to Notify Presidential Nominee; R. T. Hilton, Committee to Notify Vice Presidential Nominee; The injection of the Vandiver boom into the national chairmanship situation is to the national chairmanship situation is a sword that cuts two ways. August Belmont cherishes an ambition in that direction. Financially, he is desirable, but the choice would not meet with approval in many quarters. Thomas Taggart of Indiana is the man who has been slated for the place, and it will be difficult to stisty Indiana and Taggart's friends should the place go elsewhere.

News of the situation with reference to Mr. Vandiver soon reached the indiana men, and they are up in arms. Several of them declared yesterday that Indiana is for Parker solely on the basis of a deal; that is, that Taggart have the chairmanship. ince.
J. D. Barkdale was elected National Committeeman while the delegates were in Mississippi.

Taggart maintains that he is a Parker man by conviction rather than on the considerations of personal politics. It is barely possible that he may be mollified in some other way.

In that case, every indication is that Vandiver will be selected. At this time, the belief is general that announcement of this programme would be equivalent to an announcement of the nomination of Judge Parker; at least, it would further solidify the already solid from presented by the Parker adherents.

Colonel J. M. Guffey of Pennsylvania also is much talked of in connection with the chairmanship, this being put forward as the consideration explanatory of his State's indorsement of Parker. One plan has it that Guffey will be in charge of the Eastern campaign, with hesdequarters in New York, while Taggart will be in charge in the West, headquarters at Chicage.

cratic nominee for President.

"Will you go to the convention every day?" she was asked.

"Oh, yes, indeed. That is the only way to attend conventions," she said in the tone of one who knows her subject.

"We are not only going every day, but we will attend every session," declared Mrs. Manning.

"There can be but one outcome to this convention, and that is the nomination of Judge Parker. He is the man for the place, and one of the wisest and best men that ever lived," said Mrs. Manning, but Mrs. Hall, who always tries to evade political subjects, said:

"I believe the carriage is waiting, and as we are late, we will have to go."

"Yes, we must. It is a long drive to the Country Club. Come to see us at the convention; we will have a box," called Mrs. Manning from the carriage. Will Not Put Himself Forward for the Permanent Chairmanship.

Mr. Clark has been selected by the Mis souri delegation to put the name of Senator Francis M. Cockrell before the conator Francis M. Cockrell before the convention as a candidate for President. As a member of Congress and as a platform speaker Mr. Clark has a national reputation. He be one of Senator Cockrell's best friends, and has been very enthusiastic for Cockrell ever since his name was first mentioned as a presidential candidate. He said last night.

"I am for Cockrell for President. I am going to nominate him before the convention. There is a good deal of talk about of Alabama, Representative of the

"I am for Cockrell for President. I am going to nominate him before the convention. There is a good deal of talk about Parker being just as good as nominated now which is not well founded. There is enough opposition to Parker to keep him from being nominated. When a half-dozen being nominated. When a half-dozen ballots have been taken and he nomination made, then kook out for the nomination of Cockrell. I am not saying this just for effect, for I believe it. Cockrell is not opposed by any element or section. If nominated, he will be elected."

When asked for his views as to the platform Mr. Clark said: 'I am in favor of a declaration like this—We indorse all the essential features of the last Democratic platform."

When informed that there had been considerable talk of him for permanent chairman' of the convention. Mr. Clark said that while he would consider the honor a high one, he would not put himself forward for any position, because he intended to devote all his energies and time to the advancement of Schator Cockrell's candidacy.

Since the action taken at Chicago, which resulted in the unseating of the La Follette delegation, Wisconsin politicians have been exceedingly busy. It has remained, however, for the Wisconsin delegation now attending the National Convention to clearly formulate the plans of the Democracy to carry the Badger State in the coming campaign. When Wisconsin Democrats look for a man to lead them in their own State they naturally look to George W. Peck, There is reason for this. Peck has been Governor of Wisconsin twice. Fortunately for the Senator, he was behind closed doors with the National committee most of the time Monday and yesterday and escaped much attention that anxious constituents sought to bestow upon him. Last evening he left the delegation headquarters almost on the run and kept away from his room all afternoon in order to avoid ticket seekers whom it was beyond his power to accommodate with tickets.

allowed their alternates to attend the convention.

A statement given out by the National Committee relative to the distribution of press tickets caused a lot of additional trouble to the Missouri delegates.

Many of the country editors misunderstood the committee notice and were led to suppose that every bonafide newspaper man would receive a press ticket to the convention. They discovered their misuake after they reached here and learned that this notice only applied to metropolitan newspapers. Other ticket-seekers, by the hundreds telegraphed the Missourians from home to secure them seats in the convention. Necessarily, there will be several thousand disappointed Missourians to-day.

If the Contest Is Prolonged the Assurances of Several States Make It Certain That the Missouri Senator Will Gain Rapidly.

The Missourians put in a day of active Section and Sergeant-at-Arms, Martin. After reading the resolution, he moved its adoption.

John T. McGraw of West Virginia carried an amendment proposing that a committee, to be composed of Messrs. Howeld Guffey, Clayton, Stone and Mack, prepare separate resolutions for each of the officers, and that they be inscribed on parchinent for presentation.

Specifies were then in order. Chairman Jones spoke briefly and eloquently of the pleasure he had taken in being the head of the committee for eight years. He spoke of the hard work that hid been done and in giving up the chalf, said that he felt nothing but the kindlest sentiments for all of the committeemen.

Short talks were made by Messrs, Mack, Clayton. Stone, McGraw, Head and Kenny.

Then Colonel Martin was called for. He reviewed his labors through twelve years of service. In speaking of the compilmentary things that had been said by the committeemen, he lost control of his feelings, and, with tears streaming down his cheeks, was compelled to take his seat.

The committee finished its session at 4 o'clock, when most of the committeemen rushed away to their State cancuses. Unless something other than the expected comes up, the Committee on Arwork yesterday for Senator Cockrell

At the first session of the delegation vesterday two or three delegates showed some signs of weakening, but they were quickly persuaded that the Democracy expected fidelity to instruction. They were told that the delegation was instructed for Senator Cockrell, and that the people would not tolerate any disposition to withhold the most cheerful and lasting support of his name before the convention. The committees appointed yesterday to visit the various State delegations where there appeared the best chances of securing votes, made reports at different times during the day and last night. They were courteously received everywhere, and the visiting delegates all expressed the greatest admiration for Senator Cockrell.

Colorado. North Carolina, Massachusetts, Nebraska and the Territories, in particular, gave the Missourians some cause for hope. From other sources they were also given to understand that if the contest was prolonged, votes for Senator Cockrell might be expected. Harry B. There was much more enthusiasm among the Missourians yesterday than Monday, a fact due in part to the heavy are not half a dozen counties in the State

The Jackson Club of Kansas City sent down on a special train a body of 29, headed by Pat M. Moore, president of the organization; John H. Lucas, Frank P. Walsh, James McGowan, Joe Shanmon, W. P. Metley, A. J. Conneily and others. This organization brought its banners and its convention workers and made an excellent impression.

Politicians, old and young candidates for State offices and their friends, Congressmen, country editors and the employes of the State and municipal governments flocked about the hotel all day and until a very late hour last night. Two thousand Cockrell badges were distributed among the Missourians at the hotel during the day, and the supply was exhausted by i o'clock in the afternoon. This will give some idea of the crowd that swormed about the Cockrell headquarters resterday and elbowed each other for chairs or favorable standing room.

The arrival of a large picture of Senator Cockrell caused such a shout to go up from the Missourians that the Hoosiers rushed out of the Indiana headquarters adjoining under the assumption that Missouri had decided to withdraw Senator Cockrell and support Judge Parker.

Judging from what more than 169 Missourians said, they practically all entertain the same opinion regarding Senutor Cockrell's chance of receiving the nomination, to-wit. That his only chance is contingent upon the contest over the presidential nomination being prolonged beyond three ballots. If a nomination is made within three ballots, as many of the Missourians believe will be the case, the prize will not be awarded to Senator Cockrell.
